Blankinship & Foster Recognized As a Top Adviser

SAN DIEGO, CA — Blankinship & Foster is pleased to announce that it has been named to the Financial Times 300 Top Registered Financial Advisors list, as of June 18th, 2015. The list recognizes top independent RIA firms from across the U.S.

The Financial Times evaluates candidates based on attributes such as assets under management, growth, years the firm has been in existence, industry certifications of staff, SEC compliance record, and online accessibility. Applications were solicited from more than 2,000 independent RIA firms that had $300 million or more in assets.

Despite being included among large RIA firms in the industry, the firm is more focused on serving its existing clients than on becoming a much larger firm. Blankinship & Foster's President and CEO Stefan Prvanov, CFP® notes that he is most proud of the quality with which the firm is serving its clients, most of whom are retirees, near retirees, and financially independent women. "We are honored to be recognized as a top adviser," said Prvanov, "We're dedicated to providing high quality advice and service to our clients, and this recognition is a testament to that."
