WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I CONSIDER IF MY PARENT PASSED AWAY?

CVCTI EI UM ICCITEC	YES	NO	ECTATE CETTI EMENT ICCUEC (CONTINUED)	YES	NO
Was your parent married when he/she passed away?			Will your parent's estate exceed $11.4 million or, if your parent
If so consider the following: "If your parent was receiving Social Security, their surviving spouse may			was married, will the combined estate exceed $22.8 million? If so, consider the following:
be eligible for survivor benefits. "If the surviving spouse is receiving a government pension based on			 Your parent's estate may have a federal estate tax liability due. Proceeds from a life insurance policy owned by the deceased and values earnings that were never subjected to Social Security taxes, reference "Will I Avoid Social Security's Government Pension Offset?" flowchart. * If the surviving spouse is under the age of 59.5 and wants cash, consider			of retirement accounts are included in the gross estate. "If your parent was married, to maintain portability of unused exemption, the estate must file IRS Form 706 no later than 2 years after the date of death.
utilizing an Inherited IRA to access the assets penalty free. Reference "Should I Inherit My Deceased Spouse's IRA?" flowchart.			If there is an estate tax liability, do you expect the value of the assets to decline over the next six months?
Was your parent over the age of 70.5 or were they taking an RMD (from an inherited IRA) at the time of their death?			If so, consider electing the alternate estate valuation by filing IRS Form 706 within one year of the due date.
If so, the heirs may have to take the remaining RMD amount before the end of the year.			Could there be property and assets not yet identified?
Was your parent receiving a pension?			If so, consider the following: "Look at the "points" feature on credit cards & "miles" with airlines to see if they are transferable.
If so, payments may stop or if your parent was married, be adjusted for survivor benefits.			 Check for safety deposit boxes but be sure to follow probate rules before opening. Search state agencies and unclaimed property sites that are run by many
ESTATE SETTLEMENT ISSUES	YES	NO	state treasurers.	YES	NO
Do any accounts require ownership of the account to be updated?			INSURANCE ISSUES
Will any beneficiary be inheriting any of your parent's assets and have more assets than they need to maintain their lifestyle?			Was your parent employed at time of death? The employer and union may provide group life insurance and/or compensation related to their employment.		Ш
If so and acceptable contingent beneficiaries have been named, they may wish to disclaim these assets to shift them to other beneficiaries. This must be done within 9-months of the date of death.			Was the death accidental or work related? If so, consider the following:
Do you expect to inherit any assets from your parent or was			Some financial institutions and professional associations may offer a small lump-sum benefit. The applicator which may offer additional death banefits.
your parent included in your own estate plan? If so, consider updating your own estate plan.			 " The employer/ union may offer additional death benefits. " If your parent was married, the spouse may be eligible for worker's compensation and/or death benefits.
Are there digital assets that should be preserved?			Some life insurance policies have an "accidental death" provision for higher benefits.

CLARITY. CONFIDENCE. DIRECTION.

WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I CONSIDER IF MY PARENT PASSED AWAY? CONTINUED

INSURANCE ISSUES (CONTINUED)	YES	NO	INVESTMENT & ASSET ISSUES	YES	NO
Was your parent a veteran? If so, there may be a death & burial benefits, survivor pension and other benefits.			Does your parent have stock options, grants, or restricted stock units (RSUs)? If so, consider the following: "Check employer plan documents to understand what will happen with stock awards at death. "Beneficiaries should be aware of potential tax ramifications of accelerated stock vesting.
Did your parent have a child under age 18 or a child permanently disabled? If so, your parent's spouse and/or the child may be eligible for Social Security benefits.
Could there be any life insurance owned by your parent that has not been identified or claimed?			Has the change in circumstances altered investment objectives or risk tolerance for family members inheriting assets?
TAX ISSUES	YES	NO	Was your parent married and did they have carry-forward investment losses?
Did your parent own a home? If so, the primary residence can be sold within the first two years after your parent's death			If so, consider having the surviving spouse realize investment gains in the year of death. Carry forward losses are lost in the year of death.
Did your parent own other property jointly, such as an investment account? If so, the joint owner may receive a step-up in basis. Reference "Will I Receive A Step-Up In Basis For This Inherited Property?" flowchart.			 Does your parent own an annuity? If so, consider the following: Your parent's spouse (if applicable) may be able to inherit a non-qualified annuity as their own if they were listed as beneficiary on the policy. A non-spouse beneficiary will have to take required distributions from a non-qualified annuity. Non-qualified annuities do not receive a step up in basis, so be aware of
Have all your parent's prior income taxes been paid (not including any estate taxes)? Contact the IRS and the state's taxing authority to pay any taxes or to check if any back taxes are due.			potential tax ramifications with distributions. OTHER ISSUES	YES	NO
Did your parent file as Married Filing Jointly? If so, the surviving spouse can continue to file as MFJ in the year your parent passed away.			Do you need to reduce the threat of identity theft? If so, cancel your parent's email accounts, cancel social media accounts, notify credit bureaus, cancel driver's license, notify election board.
Was your parent married and did they have a dependent child? If so, your parent's spouse may be able to use the Qualifying Widow(er) tax filing status for the two tax years following the year your parent passed away.			Are there any state specific issues that should be considered (including out-of-state property or estate tax liability)?

Blankinship & Foster

420 Stevens Avenue Suite 250 Solana Beach, CA 92075 Phone: 858-755-5166 Fax: 858-755-5358

Email: info@bfadvisors.com

www.bfadvisors.com

CLARITY. CONFIDENCE. DIRECTION.